MC Academy Terms & Conditions 2024-2025

Please read these Terms and Conditions before you book a course with MC Academy. If anything stated in this document is not clear, then please contact us. Once an enrolment is processed by MC Academy, Terms and Conditions are binding on all students, regardless of whether you have booked directly or through an educational consultant.

How to enrol and pay for your course:

If you want to study at MC Academy we accept bookings in the following ways:

- Directly via our website <https://themcacademy.co.uk/> or by completing a registration form and sending to admissions@themcacademy.co.uk
- Online registration forms can be completed by following this link https://themcacademy.co.uk/application_form/
- Through one of our agency partners located around the world. If you book through an agent, you are the client of that agent rather than the school and significant amendments, queries, complaints and payment issues should be sent directly to the agent

If you are booking your own course:

- Valid passport must be provided.
- Arrange to pay the registration fee of £75 to MC Academy. Make sure that you say who the payment is from, and what it refers to
- When we receive your registration form we will send you an email and an invoice.
- In order to register for your course, at least 30% of the course fees plus any enrolment fees must be paid before visa documents are issued. This must be done no later than 21 days before arrival. Any airport transfers, accommodation, or tuition details will not be confirmed unless payment has been received.
- You are required to pay all outstanding fees and charges before starting your course. Failure to do so may result in withdrawal of the course and cancellation of the enrolment.
- Students and their parents or guardians agree to pay the tuition fees and other charges applicable for the course. It is understood and agreed that failure to do so may result in withdrawal from the course and cancellation of the enrolment. The remaining 70% of fees must be paid before starting classes (this applies to all courses at MC Academy).

Accommodation

- In order for accommodation to be booked by MC Academy, depending on the type of accommodation chosen, 4 weeks homestay accommodation must be paid and full residential accommodation must be paid in advance.

Payment

- All fees are payable in Pounds sterling (£) - You can pay for your course and accommodation fees through our online payment system: mccademy.flywire.com
- Course fees, enrollment fees, seasonal supplements, and accommodation booking fees are non-refundable., however course credit can be claimed within 12 months of the original course ending date.
- MC Academy offers Instalment plan options - For more information, please contact our Finance officer, or Sales Team. Email: finance@themcacademy.co.uk

Under 18-Students:

- When students under 18 years of age enrol at MC Academy, their parents or legal guardians must sign a parental consent form. Confirmation documents will not be issued and will not be accepted in their desired course until parental consent form is signed and returned.

- Accommodation for students under 18 years of age should be requested 6-8 weeks in advance of their start date, and must be paid 6 weeks before their start date.
- If any information provided in the application is incorrect, MC Academy reserves the rights to make the necessary changes to the student's enrolment at the student's expense and if necessary, ask the students to leave their course and accommodation without any refunds.

Transportation for Under 18-Students:

- Transportation for students under 18 years of age must be booked by MC Academy due to safe-guarding policies, and must be paid 4 weeks before their start date.
- Notification of change to airport transfers must be sent to our Admissions team at least 2 full working days prior to the designated arrival time. If notice is not received, full charges will apply.

- Changes and additional charges to bookings are subject to the fees listed in the current price list.
- Once Paid - Accommodation Booking fees, Enrolment fees, seasonal supplement fees, Late check in, Extra night, Accommodation change fee, and change of branch fees are non-refundable.

Services:

- MC Academy reserves the right to change details of its advertised services and course dates where circumstances beyond the company's control necessitate such changes or where the number of students is not enough to open the class.
- MC Academy reserves the right to refuse a student onto their desired course if they do not meet the criteria for entry. In this event, the student will be put onto a 'learner pathway' to their desired course, advised by a senior member of the academic team. If the student is unwilling to follow this pathway, MC Academy reserves the right to refuse the course.
- MC Academy reserves the right to change or cancel an advertised course.
- MC Academy does not permit the transfer of a student's course fees to another person.

Postponement

- If the student wishes to defer your course start date, you need to inform the MC Academy Admissions Team at least two weeks before your start date. If you do not inform us in writing and you arrive at a date later than your scheduled start date, you will not get a refund for the days you have missed.
- MC Academy does not permit the transfer of a student's course fees to another person.
- Requests to postpone start dates will be evaluated individually and are subject to availability. If rescheduling is not feasible, the above cancellation terms will apply.
- Changes to confirmed accommodation dates made with less than 14 days' notice will be treated as cancellations, and rebooking charges will be applied.

Changes to Airport Transfer

- Notification of change to airport transfers must be sent to our Admissions team at least 2 full working days prior to the designated arrival time. If notice is not received, full charges will apply.

Accident & Medical Insurance

- All students must have appropriate insurance. MC Academy recommends that all students take out travel/student insurance which is tailored to the needs of international students.
- All students in homestay accommodation are strongly encouraged to arrange insurance to cover:
 - Medical treatment and personal risks.

- Damage to loss/theft of property.
- Acceptance by the Student (or by his/her parent or legal guardian if the Student is under 18) of a place at MC Academy indicates that the Student (or parent/ legal guardian if the Student is under 18) gives permission for the administration of emergency first aid by appropriately trained staff if and when required. MC Academy staff are not allowed to administer any prescription or nonprescription medicine, but will promptly seek or recommend that the Student seeks medical, dental or optical treatment if and when required.

Visas

- Students are responsible for obtaining the necessary visa to study in the UK.
- Please reference the information on the UK Border Agency website, as well as consult the British Embassy or High commission in your home country: www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/studyingintheuk/adult-students/
- No visa support documentation will be provided until 30% of fees have been received.
- MC Academy is committed to compliance with UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) requirements and will pass on any information on student attendance and contact details in accordance with its responsibilities.
- Students are required to immediately report to MC Academy any changes in their contact details (eg. address, telephone, mobile number) and/or changes in their circumstances affecting their immigration status and their permission to stay in the UK.
- MC Academy does not take any responsibility for visa applications that are refused due to inaccurate or false information provided by the student.
- If a course booking is canceled due to visa refusal, and an official visa refusal letter is provided, a refund will be made aside from a £200 Administration Fee - Where no visa refusal letter is provided, no refund will be made.

Cancellations and Refund Policy

- Course bookings and accommodation fees will be treated separately
- In line with UK financial regulations, refunds can only be made to the same bank account or credit card from which original payment was received. This could mean that the refund is paid to a third party sponsor (or agency) who made the payment.
- Notice of any cancellation and refund request must be made by email to admissions@themcademy.co.uk and finance@themcademy.co.uk.

Course Cancellation fees before arrival:

- Notice of any cancellation must be made by email to admissions@themcademy.co.uk and finance@themcademy.co.uk.
- Failure to provide email notification will lead to full charges being made.
- For visa nationals, if a course booking is canceled due to visa refusal, and an official visa refusal letter is provided, a refund will be made aside from a £200 Administration Fee.
- Where no visa refusal letter is provided, no refund will be made.
- Where we receive this evidence, the refund will be paid to you within four weeks of your providing us with bank details and signed authorisation that the refund should be paid to that account.
- MC Academy must be informed the visa has been refused at least 72 hours before course start date to receive a refund. If the visa refusal was due to the applicant providing misleading, fraudulent, or false documents, MC Academy reserves the right to withhold all payments received.
- If course is canceled by the student - Course credit will be granted to the student 12 months following cancellation from the original course ending date. Course credit cannot be transferred to another student.
- Course fees are non-refundable, and course credit can be claimed within 12 months of the original course ending date.

Course Cancellation fees after arrival:

- When a student commences a course they are expected to complete that course as stipulated in their offer letter/student invoice. In the event that a student withdraws from a course, no refunds will be made in the following cases:
 - A student decides to withdraw or leave early from their course programme.
 - A student withdraws from a course due to poor attendance or academic progress.
 - A student breaches the code of conduct resulting in expulsion.
- In exceptional circumstances refunds of the remaining tuition fees can be agreed at the discretion of the Executive Director:
